THOMAS WILLIAM HENRY (BILL) SAUNDERS (1903 – 1977)

Known affectionately to all as simply “Bill”, Thomas William Henry Saunders was an outstanding CREB® member who inspired a generation with his high standards of professionalism, leadership and dedication to the community.

After his passing, CREB®’s board of directors created the annual REALTOR® of the Year award in his honour to continue inspiring members to be their best, both in real estate and in the greater community.

▶ CONTRIBUTIONS TO CREB®: Bill joined CREB® in 1954 and remained a member for 22 years. During his membership, he made his mark as an active member on various committees and served as a board director in 1966 and 1974.

▶ COMMUNITY VOLUNTEERISM: Along with his many professional awards and successes, Bill was also known as a tireless volunteer at church and in community affairs. He spent many years in the Boy Scout movement and, along with his membership on the City of Calgary Greening Committee, could often be found tending to CREB®’s lawn and garden.

▶ CONTINUE THE LEGACY: Bill’s shining example of dedication, sincerity, ethics and kindness lives on through this award to inspire REALTORS® to give back both in their careers and community.
