Calgary Real Estate Board
Alan Tennant, President & CEO

Dear Alan,

Parker's story touched the hearts of people across our city in a way that is difficult to put into words. In moments of tragedy, communities often reveal who they truly are. Throughout this challenging time, we saw so many people come together with compassion, generosity and a genuine desire to help. Throughout those days, Calgary Real Estate Board (CREB) was among those who answered that call without hesitation, and for that we are profoundly grateful.

CREB played an important role by asking all your realtors to check vacant properties. Your willingness to contribute communications support has supported our community at a time when so many people were looking for ways to help.

I know Parker's family has taken comfort in seeing how many people cared, how many people stood beside them and how many people wanted to help in whatever way they could. On behalf of the Calgary Police Service, thank you for the compassion, kindness and humanity that you demonstrated throughout this difficult time. It will not be forgotten.

Sincerely,
